A WORD TO OUR CHURCH FAMILY

For thirty years, Powerhouse Church has been a community of worship and transformation – and also a home full of laughter, stories, shared meals, encouragement, and moments of simply doing life together. We are a church family that shows up for one another, celebrates together, and walks alongside each other in every season.

We're especially thankful for the recent camp in Yelagiri, where we were able to spend meaningful time together over Easter – with some even welcoming Resurrection morning by watching the sunrise on a trek. Since then, we've been journeying through the season of Eastertide, reflecting on what it means to follow Christ's example and to live daily in the power of His resurrection.

We are grateful as well for the voices that have spoken into our community during this time, including Neil Kumar, Julie Simeon, and Jacob Cheriyan, each bringing encouragement and depth to our walk of faith.

As we look ahead to the summer (minus the heat!), we continue moving together toward Pentecost with anticipation and unity. Thank you to everyone who faithfully plays their part in the life of our church – building God's Kingdom here on earth, one step at a time.
